Unless otherwise indicated, the actions set forth in the Minute Orders that follow were considered and approved by the Facilities Committee in open session and without objection by the Board of Regents of the Texas Tech University System.

- I.A.1. ASU: Approve additional project scope, budget increase, and contract amendment for the Elta Joyce Murphey Auditorium Renovation project and accept the amended Construction Manager At Risk GMP.—The Board authorized the chancellor or the chancellor's designee to (i) approve the additional project scope for the Elta Joyce Murphey Auditorium Renovation project; (ii) approve expenditures of $2,957,200 to provide additional project scope for the owner requested theatrical performance equipment and renovation of the basement area below the stage area for a total project budget of $8,957,200; (iii) accept the amended Guaranteed Maximum Price ("GMP") for execution of the additional project scope; and (iv) amend the Construction Manager At Risk ("CMAR") Agreement. The total project budget which includes the previously approved $6,000,000 will be funded through the Revenue Finance System ("RFS") repaid with gifts and Higher Education Funds ("HEF").

The Board reasonably expects to incur debt obligations for the design, planning and construction of the project, and all or a portion of the debt proceeds are reasonably expected to be used to reimburse the System for project expenditures previously expended. The maximum principal amount of debt obligations to be issued for the Project is $8,957,200.

The Board further approved that the chancellor authorizes the president to negotiate and execute all agreements with city, state, and county agencies, utility companies and other entities required to successfully complete the project.

This approval authorizes additional project scope and grants authority for the CMAR to renovate the basement area below the stage area (dressing rooms, restrooms, etc.) and procure the additional owner requested theatrical performance equipment for the Elta Joyce Murphey Auditorium project for a revised total project budget of $8,957,200. The total project budget will be funded through the RFS repaid with gifts and HEF.

Through negotiations with the CMAR, logistical efficiencies and cost savings could be realized if the renovation of the basement area below the stage (dressing rooms, restrooms, etc.) and procurement of the additional theatrical performance equipment proceeded at the same time as the rest of the project. The equipment requested by the department of Visual and Performing Arts and specified by the Design Professional's Theater Consultant, includes a refreshed stage lighting package, an enhanced theatrical audio system, and production communication equipment.

The Elta Joyce Murphey Auditorium is an 8,205 SF, 400+ seat auditorium with support spaces located inside the Sol Mayer Administration Building and was built in 1947. The amended project will now renovate the entire 8,205 SF of existing space and expand the building approximately 598 GSF to accommodate additional restroom facilities for theater occupancy, accessibility, and plumbing code compliance. The lobby will be updated with new finishes, and lighting. The auditorium will be remodeled for accessibility compliance. The main exterior entrance to the auditorium will be reworked to include new steps, and a TAS compliant ramp. Additional electrical, mechanical, and plumbing distribution and fixtures will be provided.

That contract was approved by the Board and has been extended three times for an additional fifteen (15) years and will expire June 30, 2024. The contract allows for negotiations with third parties after September 1, 2023.

TTU Athletics receives multiple financial considerations, including: annual product allotment, rights fees, marketing commitment, and various bonus opportunities.

The proposed term for the agreement is anticipated to begin the date of the last signature and to expire four (4) years from that date. The agreement would have the option to renew for up to four (4) one (1) year renewal terms.

The estimated annual cost for this agreement is $150,000 per year. Texas Tech University System (“TTUS”) will also reimburse the consultant’s reasonable direct expenses for travel, lodging, document reproduction and other support expenses. Direct expenses will only be reimbursed with prior approval from TTUS.

University of North Texas System (“UNT System”) issued a Request for Proposal (“RFP”) on October 7, 2016 and CapTrust was awarded a contract from the RFP. TTUS will utilize the UNT System’s competitive solicitation process and contract with CapTrust after determining the best value for TTUS.

Dr. Lauriat received her B.A. in Classical Civilizations from Boston University (2001), her J.D. from Boston University School of Law (2004), and her Ph.D. in Law from Balliol College at the University of Oxford (2013).

Ivy Walz, Ph.D., joined the J.T. and Margaret Talkington College of Visual and Performing Arts as an Associate Dean and Associate Professor of Music on September 1, 2023. Dr. Walz came to Texas Tech University from Ithaca College, where she was an associate dean and associate professor, and was granted tenure in 2017. Dr. Walz received her Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance and Music Education from Ithaca College (1998), a Master of Music from Ithaca College (2002), and her Doctor of Music Arts degree from the University of Cincinnati (2014).

- I.C.2. TTU: Approve the establishment of the Department of Interdisciplinary Arts in the J.T. and Margaret Talkington College of Visual and Performing Arts.—The Board authorized the creation of the Department of Interdisciplinary Arts in the J.T. and Margaret Talkington College of Visual and Performing Arts.

Texas Tech University proposes creating the Department of Interdisciplinary Arts with a typical organizational structure to consolidate and standardize the various department-level functions (e.g., faculty workload, teaching assignments, performance evaluations, etc.) and the location of the faculty and students in the two programs.

Currently, the J.T. and Margaret Talkington College of Visual and Performing Arts functions simultaneously as a college and as an academic unit (department), housing three faculty lines and two-degree programs, the Bachelor of Arts (“BA”) in Interdisciplinary Arts Studies and the Doctor of Philosophy (“Ph.D.”) in Fine Arts. The two-degree programs and the three faculty will move to the newly created department.

- I.C.3. TTU: Approve conferral of an honorary degree.—The Board approved the conferral of an honorary Doctorate of Law to Mr. Fred David Gray.

Mr. Gray is a celebrated civil rights attorney who represented Rosa Parks and Martin Luther King, Jr. and is a friend of Mark Lanier, one of Texas Tech University (“TTU”) School of Law’s most notable graduates. Through the generosity of Mark and Becky Lanier, a new endowed chair, “The Fred Gray Endowed Chair in Civil Rights and Constitutional Law,” was established. [NOTE: On November 30, 2023, a special ceremony was held to announce the establishment of the aforementioned endowed chair and to bestow an honorary Doctorate of Law degree to Mr. Gray.]

Advance notice of the proposed honorary degree was provided to the members of the Board of Regents as required by Section 12.04.06, Regent’s Rules.

- I.C.4. TTU: Approve honorary naming of “The Red Steagall Institute for Traditional Western Arts.”—The Board approved the honorary naming of the newly established Institute for Traditional Western Arts, under the auspices of the National Ranching Heritage Center, as follows: “The Red Steagall Institute for Traditional Western Arts.” The naming is in honor of Red Steagall’s longtime and rich advancement of Western Arts and, ranch life and the “cowboy way of life.”

The National Ranching Heritage Center’s (“NRHC”) Institute for Traditional Western Arts (the “Institute”) will pass on the excellence from the highest societies of Western performers, authors, artists and gear makers that tell the story of ranching in the American West to future generations. The envisioned Institute will provide context for the public on how and why those artistic endeavors are important to the ranching story, along with actively promoting academic research, publishing, humanities and arts. Most importantly, the Institute will incubate future generations of Western performers, artists and gear makers that will continue to contribute to the ranching way of life.

Red Steagall epitomizes the spirit of the NRHC and the Institute. Few artists capture the authentic stories of cow-country better than Steagall—acclaimed singer, songwriter and poet. Steagall’s prominence in the ranching community and ties to Western culture represent a unique opportunity to advance the Institute for Traditional Western Arts (the “Institute”) in a way no other person could.

Steagall grew up in ranching country—watching cowboys drive cattle up his playground of the Canadian River bottom. Following a successful career in mainstream country music as a producer, songwriter and performer, Steagall found himself drawn home to his roots and a desire to preserve the music, poetry and essences of the people he admired the most—cowboys and ranchers.

Steagall has worked alongside cowboys for over thirty years, on ranches from Montana to California, including the JA and the 6666, fanning his passion to preserve the art and people of ranching. Steagall has kept the rancher and cowboy alive and in front of mainstream audiences through his live performances, syndicated radio show and television shows, even when the Western genre was not being produced on the silver screen or broadcast television.

Steagall has been a long-time supporter of both Texas Tech and the NRHC. His 1982 recordings of “Red Raider Coming at You” captured the spirit of Red Raider fans, and the Red Steagall Endowed Scholarship has helped many students in the Davis College of Agricultural Sciences & Natural Resources succeed in their pursuit of an academic degree.

More than sixty years ago, Texas Tech University administrators came alongside ranching industry leaders and the South Plains community to dream about preserving the ranching story through its architecture and artifacts. Through tremendous challenges, a committed line of leaders, volunteers and staff have built on the foundations of earlier generations to highlight an astounding collection of fifty-five fully outfitted historic structures representing ranching over the last 200-years. The crown jewel they created—the NRHC as it stands today—will be elevated to even greater status with the addition of Red Steagall’s name, bringing life and prominence to the Institute for generations to come.

She took on a co-leadership role and later assumed the lead in managing the PLFSOM's faculty development course, the faculty mentorship program, and the faculty writing interest group. She established the leadership academy as a component of the institutional faculty development program.

She recently served for a year as a Visiting Professor at the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Rijeka in Rijeka, Republic of Croatia, where she contributed to the establishment of faculty development and mentoring programs. These international involvements strengthened TTUHSC El Paso's global visibility, and Dr. Kupesic should be honored with the title of Professor Emeritus.

02.08.3.b Academic positions.

- (1) The requisite donation to establish an endowed chair or an endowed professorship will vary by unit and type of research, subject to the minimums listed in this operating policy. The dean will consult with the Provost/Senior Vice President (“PSVP”) before determining the amount requested for the establishment of a chair or professorship in various programs. Recruitment and retention of top faculty engaged in intensive laboratory research require higher levels of support. TTU OP 32.22 and OP 32.16 outline the procedures for recruiting, nominating, and/or appointing faculty to an endowed chair or an endowed professorship.

- (2) The donor may name an endowed chair or an endowed professorship in the college or program of choice, subject to the minimum requirements set forth in this operating policy.
- (3) Subject to criteria set forth by the donor, the spendable income is typically used to supplement the chair or professorship holder's salary, as well as provide additional income to reasonably compliment the chair or professorship holder's work, including items such as the purchase of special publications, the hiring of graduate students to assist the chair holder in research projects, the involvement of post-doctoral students in the particular discipline, and other expenses that directly support the teaching or research of the chair or professorship holder.
- (4) Subject to criteria set forth by the donor, the spendable income of an endowed deanship, department chair, or department director is used to recruit and retain outstanding leaders by providing funds to support their salaries and to fund the pursuit of their professional goals and the development of the unit.
- (5) Without the prior approval of the President, no more than fifty percent (50%) of the prior fiscal year's distributions may be used as salary for the individual holding a chair, professorship, or deanship without prior written approval from the President and the SVPAF. For each exception granted, written approval from the President must be obtained each fiscal year by the college or program for the exception to apply.

02.08.4. Minimum Funding Levels.

No donor funds will be used for the creation of this endowed chair but may be used in the future to enhance the chair. This request has been approved administratively by the president and the chancellor and is recommended for approval by the Board of Regents.

TTUHSC’s mission is to enrich the lives of others by educating students to become collaborative health care professionals, providing excellent patient care, and advancing knowledge through innovative research. The spendable income of this chair will be used to recruit and retain outstanding leaders by providing funds to support their salaries and to fund the pursuit of their professional goals and to further TTUHSC’s mission of research innovation and collaboration.

Dr. Douglas Stocco was a respected Senior Vice President of Research and served in various roles including Dean of the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences during his 40-year tenure at TTUHSC.

In recognition of his distinguished service as an academician and researcher, Dr. Stocco was the recipient of numerous national and international honors and awards. In 1985, he received the National Institutes of Health Research Career Development Award. This was followed by the NIH Merit Award in 1996. In 1997, TTUHSC bestowed the Grover E. Murray Distinguished Professorship, the highest distinction a faculty member can attain. That same year, he was awarded a University Medical Center Endowed Chair, the research

In 2009, Dr. Stocco received the Distinguished Scientist of the Year Award from the Society for Reproduction and Fertility in the United Kingdom. In acknowledgement of his outstanding research career and scholarly activities in reproductive biology, Dr. Stocco received the Carl G. Hartman Award, the highest honor bestowed by the Society for the Study of Reproduction, in 2012.

The current balance of the Research Chair Quasi Endowment (fund 501049) including the corpus and spendable is $1,595,348.15.

- X.B.1.f. TTUHSC El Paso: Authorize acceptance of a Gift-In-Kind of Real Property benefiting Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso.—The Board (i) accepted a real property gift-in-kind from CEMNAC Investments, L.L.C., a Texas limited liability company (the “Donor”) of 900 square feet located at 400 Reynolds Street, El Paso, Texas; and (ii) approved the execution of the deeded land to Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso (“TTUHSC El Paso”); provided, however, that such approval is contingent upon the successful negotiation of an appropriate right-of-access agreement between TTUHSC El Paso and American Tower or its successors or assign (the “Lessee”).

CEMNAC Investments, L.L.C., a Texas limited liability company (the “Donor”) desires to donate certain real property, being approximately 900 square feet, more or less, located at 400 Raynolds Street, El Paso, Texas, for TTUHSC El Paso’s full use, enjoyment, and benefit. The donation of this property is vital to fulfill the mission of the El Paso campus as it is adjacent to a current TTUHSC EP facility that will allow it to expand its current space for future use

The land sits adjacent to TTUHSC El Paso’s main campus and currently houses a cell tower operated under a lease between Donor and American Tower (the “Lessee”). The Donor is in the process of selling its rights under the lease with Lessee to Unison and believes that ownership of the land on which the cell tower sits would be best suited via ownership by TTUHSC El Paso. TTUHSC El Paso desires to accept ownership thereof.

A preliminary Environmental Site Assessment of the property was conducted by the Institution, and no issues were identified. However, completion of the gift is contingent upon successful negotiation of a right-of-access agreement between TTUHSC El Paso and Lessee. The System’s Office of General Counsel is working directly with representatives of Lessee on a right-of-access agreement to take effect if and when TTUHSC El Paso takes possession of the property.

Longtime business and community leaders, Clement Marcus, Meyer Marcus, and Gary Nadler—owners of CEMNAC Investments, L.L.C.—were inspired by the vision for TTUHSC El Paso’s mission and impact on our community. Recognizing the need to grow the facilities of our campus, they stepped up to provide the sale of a deeply discounted property that will expand the capacity of TTUHSC El Paso. Both Meyer and Clement Marcus have been generous in supporting our mission in additional ways by way of scholarship contributions and clinical excellence funds.

More than 60 years ago, Texas Tech University administrators came alongside ranching industry leaders and the South Plains community to dream about preserving the ranching story through its architecture and artifacts. Through tremendous challenges, a committed line of leaders, volunteers, and staff have built on the foundations of earlier generations to build the National Ranching Heritage Center, which houses an astounding collection of 55 fully outfitted historic ranching structures. With the addition of the Cash Family Ranch Life Learning Center, featuring Hank the Cowdog, the National Ranching Heritage Center is poised to serve as a critical outreach and engagement bridge from Texas Tech University to the community. However, there is still a need that goes beyond history and exhibits to share the ethos, culture, and lifestyle of ranching’s evolution in the American West.

The Institute for Traditional Western Arts will provide context for the public on how and why Western arts are important to the ranching story while actively promoting academic research, publishing, humanities, and arts education. Most importantly, the Institute will incubate future generations of Western performers, artists, and gear makers who will continue to share the ranching way of life with people around the world. The Institute will be a critical hub to pass on excellence from the highest societies of Western performers, authors, artists, and gear makers that tell the story of ranching in the American West to future generations.

The Institute will focus on:

- Educating the next generation of Western performers, artists, and gear makers
- Promoting outreach and engagement through research and publishing in the humanities, arts, and education
- Serving as a research hub

The Institute for Traditional Western Arts will be under the auspices of the National Ranching Heritage Center and led by Executive Director Jim Bret Campbell.

TTU Centennial Public Art 100 Reflections

Art Budget: $150,000 - $300,000 (to be raised by TTAA)

Artist: Randy Walker
Minneapolis, MN

Title: 100 Reflections

Status: Design approved, fundraising in progress

Artist Statement: 100 Reflections celebrates Texas Tech at 100 years. It is both one and many; singular and open-ended. Like the university itself, there are many ways of experiencing it: from up close and from a distance, grounded and reaching for the sky. The flat Double T has been transformed from a flat graphic to an environment, constantly shifting with changing light and the generations of students who come to view it.

1 Double T

100 Double Ts

100 Double Ts rising

Texas Tech's Centennial Year is a time for reflecting on the past and looking to the future. In the one hundred years of its existence, Texas Tech University has grown exponentially. From an initial 910 students in 1923 to a current student enrollment that exceeds 40,000, Texas Tech now includes academic programs that have made it a nationally renowned institution of higher learning.

Texas Tech's iconic Double T logo is the singular symbol that encompasses the school's spirit of strong academics, sports and campus traditions. The Double T, through its design variations and expressions on signs, scoreboards, websites, catalogues and apparel has remained instantly recognizable as a two-dimensional graphic. To celebrate one hundred years of Texas Tech, the familiar Double T can be re-imagined. 100 reflections will be an artwork that unlocks the Double T's potential as an immersive, three-dimensional sculptural form. The sculpture's form is generated by extracting 100 smaller, individual Double Ts from a single logo. As points in space, rather than lines, the familiar Double Ts are now legible because we complete them in our minds. Next, the 100 Double Ts are rotated in space as if they are rising from the ground. Tracing their rotation with 100 vertical posts suddenly reveals a complex, layered three-dimensional field. Because they are rotated both vertically and horizontally, each vertical pole is a unique height.

100 reflections celebrates Texas Tech at 100 years. It is both one and many; singular and open-ended. Like the University itself, there are many ways of experiencing it: from up close and from a distance, grounded and reaching for the sky. The flat Double T has been transformed from a flat graphic to an environment, constantly shifting with changing light and the generations of students who come to view it.

100 reflections will take on different characters as one moves around it. From its shortest vertical column, representing the school's modest founding in 1923 to the tallest column, representing the dramatic increase in enrollment in 2023.
